

WHO WE ARE

The West Kowloon Cultural District (“WKCD”) is a strategic investment by the Government of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (“HKSAR”) to meet the long-term needs of Hong Kong’s arts and cultural sector, a vital part of any world-class city’s economic and social fabric. The West Kowloon Cultural District Authority (“WKCD Authority” or “the Authority”) was established under the West Kowloon Cultural District Authority Ordinance, Cap. 601, to develop WKCD.

With an area of 40 hectares, of which 23 hectares are reserved for public open space, WKCD will be an asset of Hong Kong for residents and visitors to enjoy. WKCD Authority strives to develop WKCD into an integrated arts and cultural district where people can embrace its creative and innovative environment, appreciate its arts and cultural components, and make the most of their valuable leisure time.

WHAT WE DO

The WKCD is an integrated arts and cultural district that will:

- provide quality culture, entertainment and tourism programmes with a must-visit appeal for both local residents and visitors from around the world;
- meet the long-term needs of Hong Kong’s arts and cultural development and foster organic growth and development of culture and creative industries; and
- become a cultural hub for attracting and nurturing talents, an impetus to improve quality of life, as well as a cultural gateway to the Pearl River Delta.

To achieve these, we need to...

- prepare a Development Plan for WKCD to lay out the plan area and set apart the land within it for various land uses;
- develop WKCD in accordance with the land use and other requirements or conditions specified in the approved Development Plan; and
- provide (including plan, design and construct), operate, manage and maintain arts and cultural facilities, related facilities or ancillary facilities.

WKCD is first and foremost an arts hub. We strive to...

- advocate, promote, organise, sponsor, encourage and provide for the appreciation of and participation in arts and culture;
- promote, exhibit and display arts publicly and otherwise;
- initiate and support the creation, composition, production, learning and practising of the arts; and
- perform such other functions as are conferred on or required of WKCD Authority by or under the WKCD Authority Ordinance or any other Ordinance.
